DISHA Scheme

Department of Justice has launched the Nyaya Prabodh under the DISHA Scheme.

Launched in 2021, DISHA (Designing Innovative Solutions for Holistic Access to Justice) is a Central Sector Scheme of the Department of Justice that promotes access to justice in line with the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 and Article 39A of the Indian Constitution.

Key Components of DISHA:

Tele-Law: Provides pre-litigation legal advice through video/teleconferencing using about 2.5 lakh Common Service Centres (CSCs) across the country.

Nyaya Bandhu: Encourages advocates and law students to provide free legal assistance (Pro Bono Legal Services) to eligible beneficiaries.

Legal Literacy: Conducts legal awareness campaigns, capacity building, and legal literacy programmes at the grassroots level.

Nyaya Prabodh: A year-long legal awareness campaign aimed at improving citizens' understanding of their constitutional and legal rights and responsibilities.
